Mobility Pathfinders is an independent association without direct ties to any existing industry organization. The group is led by game changing industry influencers whose primary focus it to promote women in our industry. Founding sponsorship and engagement will be promoted heavily to recognize this unique initiative that is focused on the professional development of women at all levels of their career. In all instances, membership dues are not included in sponsorship costs. Active membership required for all sponsors and are due upon sponsorship confirmation. All sponsor levels can be companies or individuals interested in supporting Mobility Pathfinder initiatives.
